

Executive Summary Michael H Ackerman

- Doctorally prepared nurse practitioner with a strong clinical, educational, and research background.
- Highly motivated, innovative leader creating both the Sovie Center of Advanced Practice as well as the Center for Clinical Trials and Medical Device Evaluation at the University of Rochester Medical Center.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills with over 50 publications in a variety of journals including refereed publications.
- Certified Crucial Conversations trainer.
- Hospital and nursing operations experience in a variety of settings including larger academic medical centers.
- Certified acute care nurse practitioner with 20 years of critical care experience as an NP.
- Consultant to other healthcare organizations in the area of nurse practitioner and physician assistant practice including, billing, organizational structure and support, credentialing, and OPPE/FPPE.
- Energetic and engaged team member focused on results.
- Award winning member of several professional organizations.
- Over 50 publications.
- Experienced researcher with a track record of funding.
- Successful legal nurse consultant.
- Highly successful motivational as well as clinical speaker with 100's of invited presentations.
- Member of several national committees.